

Dear Valued client,

We another year has nearly gone, and I know you will be starting to concentrate on the Christmas preparations, so thank you for taking the time to read this letter. Thank you also for your support and custom. I do appreciate it very much.

New ranges

Sanderson has newly released a few new ranges over the last few months. William Morris volume V is another outstanding Morris Range, this is still very "Morris" with his handcrafted feel to them, but some of the colour tones are more earthy which are suitable for more modern homes.

Marney

I particularly love the thick textures in Tulip and Rose, it has a handmade feel and is truly beautiful.

Marney: takes its inspirations for antique French textiles, with complementary wallpapers including toile and 17th century papers. I love this range, and know it would look beautiful in many of the country farm houses I have had the privilege to visit. Contemporary papers: I have some yummy new contemporary papers Goa and Woodland that would look fantastic on feature walls or in areas that you want to add that bit of pizzazz!

Feng Shui Classes

Early next year I am going to be running some Feng Shui evenings, I will be touching on how to add prosperity and wealth to your homes and lives. I would like to run these evenings as fundraisers for different groups so if you, or anyone you know would be interested in hosting one of the evenings, please let me know.

Personal notes

A few months ago I went to America to meet my partner Chris's family and friends and then onto the British Virgin Islands to see where he had been working on a short term contract. We had a marvellous time together travelling around some of the most beautiful states of America including Indiana and Wyoming. One of the nice things about travelling is meeting interesting people of the cultures. I found lots of new designs ideas colours mixes.

Another nice thing that has happened is that my son Matthew is getting married on January 11th next year, I am very happy for Matthew and Jackie, and wish them all happiness in the future. They are getting married at French Farm in Akaroa,

Christmas Holiday's

I will be closing to studio for annual holidays on December the 18th and reopening on January 13th 2009. If you would like to make a booking for the New Year, or have any other queries please leave a message and I will ring you back during that time. I wish you all a very happy Christmas and New Year and hope to see you again soon.
